General

1. All props and costume pieces borrowed from the show were safely returned after the run!
2. Overall response from crowd has been very positive, lively, and energetic. Good work everyone.
3. Stage management would like to extend a very special thanks to Becky, Adriana, Ian, Constanza, and Bailee. Working with each of you for the past five weeks to mount a two-hour production with 9 actors and over 20 characters has been nothing short of miraculous. It was an honor to travel the show these past two nights and to have such a great homecoming performance close out our run. Thank you all for your amazing work!

Herman has kept those items locked up in the dressing room. The remaining clothes are on two costume racks, with the accessories being layed out on the costume shop table.
